ENROLLMENT
FULL-TIME ATTENDANCE IN FIRST TERM: TENNESSEE

Percentage of all first-time degree-seeking Tennessee students who enrolled full time by type of institution

About the Data
Degree- or certificate-seeking student: a student enrolled in for-credit courses and who is recognized by the institution as seeking a degree, certificate, or other formal award. The formal definition of "degree-seeking" or "certificate-seeking" varies by state.

First-time student: a student who has no prior postsecondary experience attending any institution for the first time at the undergraduate level. This category includes students enrolled in academic or occupational programs.

Full-time student: a student enrolled for 12 or more semester credits, for 12 or more quarter credits, or for 24 or more contact hours a week each term.

Data from the most recent year may not be final and are subject to revision.
